Juan Williams is one of America's leading political writers and thinkers. He is the senior correspondent for NPR, a political analyst for Fox Television, an author and a regular panelist for Fox News Sunday. As one of the nation's most influential political journalists, Williams' understanding of American history and his inside access to Washington politics gives him a unique and informed voice as an analyst of current events. Juan Williams has created a national furor and ignited debate everywhere with his point blank analysis of black leadership in the United States.
